

CIS Announces That It Will Accept Adjustment of Status Filings Until August 17

It is official: The State Department and the CIS have reversed their announcement of July 2 which suspended adjustment filings.

The CIS will accept adjustment of status applications for all individuals who were eligible to file in June and July. They will keep all cases already filed, and they will accept new filings up to the close of business August 17. The OLD filing fees will be effective for all of these filings (even those filed on or after July 30).

If you have questions regarding this important announcement, please contact one of the McCandlishh Holton immigration attorneys.
