

EVA C. ROFFIS

WORKERS' COMPENSATION LITIGATION

+1 804 775 3850 | EROFFIS@LAWMH.COM

Eva is a Director in the Litigation Practice Group.

Eva's practice focuses on representing employers and insurance carriers in the defense of workers' compensation claims in Virginia. She defends employers and carriers throughout the entire litigation process, including hearings, mediations, and appellate work before the Full Commission, Court of Appeals, and Supreme Court of Virginia. She regularly advises clients on defense strategies, including compensability analysis and settlement recommendations.

Eva represents employers in a wide variety of industries, including transportation, construction, and healthcare. Clients appreciate how responsive and skillful Eva is when working on their claims.

Eva's passion for workers' compensation law began when she worked as a Litigation Paralegal at McCandlish Holton prior to enrolling in law school. Before her return as an Associate, she gained practical knowledge and experience through internships at the Office of the Attorney General of Virginia and the Central Virginia Capital Defender Office.

Eva is an active member of the Virginia Workers' Compensation American Inn of Court and currently holds the position of Director At Large for the Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys. She has also held the roles of Chair and Vice Chair of the workers' compensation section of the Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys.

Eva has been invited to speak on numerous workers' compensation topics, including ethics, and her work has been published in the Journal of Civil Litigation.
